

Plea to find missing Irish plumber

RELATIVES of a missing Irishman hope Glasgow people may have vital information about his disappearance.

Martin Kelly, 21, of Co Down in Northern Ireland, went missing on New Year's Day after drinking with friends near Belfast docks.

His family say Martin - who has connections in Glasgow - may since have caught a ferry to Scotland and could now be in the Glasgow area.

His pal Simon Matthews has put up posters of Martin across the city and he said: "If he reads this he can call me."

Martin, a plumber, is 6ft 1in, slim, with short dark hair.

If you have any information, call

Belfast police on 0845 600 8000.

Publication date 25/01/06

Photo Sales
archive search click here to browse

s1jobs.com
GET HEADHUNTED

Barcelona

TravelShop
Airport Parking

TravelShop
Holiday Insurance

PREVIOUS PAGE

1 of 1

NEXT PAGE

email article to a friend print article have your say: email us larger type smaller type

plus 200 inclusive minutes & 500 texts orange orange.co.uk